The Board of Trustees met at 6:00 pm, Wednesday, May 24, 2023, for a Special board meeting in the Keystone Community Center meeting room. Pledge of allegiance was recited. Present were President Sandra McLain, Trustees Bill Babcock, and Will Parks. Trustees McNulty and Fullilove were absent. Also present was Finance Officer Samantha Epler. Other interested citizens in attendance were John Wells, Susan Alumbaujah, Ken Jaques, Leslie Silverman, Duane and Laura Pankratz, Lisa Schaeffer, Cal Loock, Robin Scott, Natan Levy, Yaakov Elkobi, Bob Nelson, Robin Pladson, and Candace Lorimor.

6:00pm Meeting Called to order. The purpose of the meeting was to address community member concerns. John Wells spoke about the safety and noise of the helicopter tours. He fielded questions from community members and addressed additional concerns brought up. Trustee Parks addressed the Harney Street lot appearance and whether the town will be able to move it. Suggestions from community members in attendance were to either build a fence or plant trees and bushes. Trustee McLain is working with the Forrest Service to locate a map of the sewer plant. Lisa Schaeffer discussed businesses putting out their garbage cans. Lisa also suggested reducing the amount of employee parking to free up more spaces for tourists. Robin Scott spoke to what the chamber was doing to bring in more tourism to Keystone. It was brought up that citizens would like to have another special meeting in July the board agreed no date was set.

Motion by Trustee Babcock to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Trustee Parks. Vote – all aye.

Meeting adjourned 7:44 pm.
